

Clusters smaller than 25 voxels are not given a row in a; the extents in the header are the full maps, so a signal can be large here and absent from a (one confluent blob), or present as a map and too small to name.